

Mitch Trujillo – Class of 1976

1976 graduate Mitch Trujillo graduated from University of Southern Colorado in 1980 with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, among many scholarships, Mitch was awarded the President Academic Achievement scholarship. After graduation, Mitch began his business career at Xerox Corporation where he achieved President's Club level in 1981-82 and was number one U.S. sales rep in 1981.

In 1988, upon leaving Xerox he took employment at Western Medical Supply in Pueblo and then to Bayer Health Care Pharmaceuticals. After many different positions within the Company, he was promoted to, and is currently Vice President, Head of Global Medical Science Liaison Excellence, and Global Medical Affairs where he is responsible for worldwide vision, development, and implementation of global medical science liaison teams for all therapeutic areas, including cardiology, neurology, oncology, ophthalmology, women's healthcare and specialized medicine, and diagnostic imaging. He supervises operations in the United States and Germany.